

University of Salford
A Greater Manchester University

The University of Salford
Institutional Repository
(USIR) is an online service hosting research material produced by members of the University of Salford

Reasons to deposit with USIR

- High visibility for your research
- Free access for everyone
- Secure storage for your research output
- It provides access to your research in one place that would otherwise be diffused across thousands of scholarly journals and websites
- It is a showcase for University of Salford research as well as a powerful recruitment tool
- Shares your research findings quickly with a worldwide audience via web search engines such as Google, Yahoo, etc.
